

Important notice regarding final year class examinations.

All students are hereby informed that the final year class examination will be conducted in the last week of September 2020 or in the first week of October 2020.

The examination will be conducted either in online mode or physical mode as per the Government decisions at that time.

So students shall start the preparation.

By Order

Principal